DAVID CANNIZZARO proved a wonderful straight man for Councilman Dick Clark Monday night. At one point, in pleading for legalizing pinball machines for those under 18, David said, "After 18, boys are working, mixed up with girls and stuff." Clark quipped, "You're mixed up with girls 'til you're 83." A little later, David said, "I've been thinking about this (problem) for a long time. Frankly, I didn't even know there was a City Council." Clark: "You and 14,000 other people!"

Lions Cooperate With Soroptimist Club's 'Light the Night' Project

Recently in Albany a very fine project was kicked-off by the Soroptimist Club.

Designed for neighborhood safety, residents were requested to turn on porch lights at night.

Costing only pennies per month, it was soon found such practice also added cheerfulness to the community.

However, without constant promotion and publicity members found progress slow. But the project did catch on, there were rewards.

In several areas where neighbors passed the work there soon developed a complete new look.

This week Project "Light the Night" takes on new meaning for Soroptimists.

Enthusiastic over the wonderful observance by residents, Albany Lions wish to make it even better.

Without cost, members of their club replace burned out porch lights.

For those desiring this service, a telephone call to Albany Chamber of Commerce, 525-1771, or Albany Times, 525-1510, will bring a Lion within 24 hours.

Residents should understand the renewal service does not include repair. For repairs, a qualified electrician should be contacted.

President William Savage of the Lions reports Lions are proud to assist such a worthy cause.

He also stated it seemed timely to enter the project while the Lions light bulb sale was in progress.

Requests may be given Lion door-to-door salesmen all this month.

In return for new porch lamp, residents will be invited to sign pledge card to help "Light the Night."

Thus by joining hands, Lions and Soroptimists help make our community brighter and safer and in return are rewarded with pride.

Council Again Takes Stand On Extension of BARTD

At the urging of Councilman Richard Clark, a director of Bay Area Rapid Transit District, Albany City Council Monday night took action to inform Alameda and Contra Costa county representatives that they oppose extension of the BART line into San Mateo county and San Francisco airport.

A second related matter, that of endorsing Proposition 18, which would permit part of gas tax funds to be used for mass transit, particularly Rapid Transit, was moved by Clark but died for lack of a second.

Mayor H. F. Call said if Albany had to start paving its own streets, the tax rate could triple.

Clark said the matter of extending BART into non-paying counties is coming to a head. He said taxpayers are going to have to stand up and oppose extension into San Mateo county. About $1½ billion has been contributed in property and sales tax by taxpayers in the three original counties, the director pointed out.

"Those taxpayers should be heard," Clark said, adding, "It's a hot issue. There's no doubt of the need, but who's going to pay?"

During further discussion, Call said, "San Mateo pulled out. If it comes back and has a free ride, it's not fair to the counties who have put funds in."

Since early 1963, Clark said, Albany has contributed nearly $1½ million.

"We got a $160,000 park and we'll have a nice train running through our city," he said, "and we'll continue to pay until 1990."

Albany Gives Enough

During discussion of endorsing Proposition 18 on the November ballot, Councilman Lewis Howell said he believes the people of Alameda, Contra Costa and San Francisco counties have given their all to Rapid Transit.

"Until we can see actual benefit . . . that Rapid Transit will take people off the freeways, I feel this community has done plenty . . . and maybe a little extra."

Howell said those in the three-county area are paying an extra half-cent sales tax, that Albany has lost 100 homes with their assessed valuation and that once the gas tax funds have been broken into, cities may find nothing left for city and county roads.

Pinball Machines
David Cannizzaro of 703 Curtis was back at the Council meeting to plead for legalizing pinball machines for those under 18. He said he can find no state law against it, that he has played in both Santa Cruz and Newark.

The youth said he believes it was during the depression that pinball machines were placed off limits for young people because they spent lunch money on them.

"I think it's different now," he said, "I don't think anyone is too short of money."

Mayor Call, Councilman Joe Carlevaro and Councilman George Hein all complimented David on his salesmanship.

Hein, who is in the amusement business, said, "You must be a whizz at the pinball machines. Maybe that's why they kick you off."

Call asked David if he thought legalizing pinball machines might cut down on the drug problem or make it worse.

The youth said it couldn't make it worse and might give young people something else to do. He told of a couple of boys who were stopped from playing pinball machines and they decided to buy acid.

Carlevaro said there doesn't seem to be anything morally wrong with pinball machine playing, but he wondered about escalation of other problems, such as gambling. David admitted there is some gambling on the side, but "just once in a while."

At the end of an often-humorous discussion, Call promised David that Council would look into the matter and consult the Chief of Police.

Drug Abuse
Following discussion, Council directed Administrative Officer James B. Turner and City Attorney Lawrence Saker to make an in-depth study of the quality of drug abuse programs currently available in the city and to begin preparation of an application for funds available through the federal Safe Street and Crime Act, with Association of Bay Area Governments approval, to set up such a program in Albany.

Welfare Cheating
Council urged all citizens to read the welfare cheating article in Monday's Gazette and will vote on Howell's motion to support the Gazette at next week's meeting. (Continued on Page 3)

County Mayor's Conference Takes Albany Position On Extension of BARTD

Alameda County Mayors' conference unanimously approved a motion by Pleasanton Mayor Robert I. Reid September 2 at Sunol Country club to ask Bay Area Rapid Transit district to set expansion priorities within rather than outside the district, under the federal mass transit bill.

On Aug. 24, Albany City Council took a similar position after a report from BART Director and City Councilman Richard Clark that there is an attempt to extend the system to San Francisco airport, which is outside the district.

BART Director George Silliman and Clark reported that BART has no money for extension now. "We hope and pray we can finish the original 75-mile system," Silliman said, adding they are studying the bus feeder system.

It was reported that there could be a possibility Santa Clara county will annex and buy into the Rapid Transit district, which now includes Contra Costa, Alameda and San Francisco counties. Mayors were of the opinion that first priority should be given to extension to Pleasanton and Livermore.

Clark said the majority of the board has given a free hand to the planning staff without instruction on priorities or buying in procedures. He said priorities should be established within the board, then staff can go ahead with expansion plans throughout the nine-county Bay Area as funds are available.

Mayors discussed possibilities of a joint three-county study on refuse disposal with Contra Costa and San Francisco counties, although San Leandro Mayor Jack Malterster said the Association of Bay Area Governments has a committee studying overall solid waste disposal.

Members approved a restaurant inspection ordinance which will be brought back to individual city governments and Alameda County Health department.

They unanimously approved a policy statement that consideration of requests for financial support from various philanthropic and other non-governmental agencies does not come within the purview of the conference.

Considerable time was spent discussing a possible agenda for the December Legislators' meeting and ways to make the conference itself more meaningful. Among items mentioned were mental and other public health programs, smog and employer-employee relations. Albany Mayor H. F. Call said it would be helpful to discuss the latter subject with other mayors because in local negotiations, civic employees always mention what other cities did rather than gear their requests to increased costs of living.

Pleasanton was host city for September.

Soccer Volunteers Sought for Albany

Clay Berling, match secretary of the Alameda-Contra Costa Youth Soccer League, is looking for several young (in heart) and energetic men to develop a boys' soccer team to represent the City of Albany.

We will be working with boys 12 and under, playing in friendly competition with other boys teams in El Cerrito, Concord, Oakland and Montclair (Oakland).

Soccer is now the fastest growing competitive sport in the United States and nearly 4,000 boys 18 years and under are registered in youth teams around Northern California.

Men who would be interested in coaching, training or managing a team of boys are invited to call Mr. Berling at 524-4508 or 541-6171 as soon as possible. In order to field a team in the current season it is necessary to have men before Sept. 14.

Boys interested in playing in an under 12 team for Albany are also invited to call Berling for further details. Parents are invited to call as well.

CHRYSLER ANNOUNCING
the 1971 Duster.
The big difference in small cars.

We first introduced the Duster as the best transportation bargain in America. It still is. And we built Duster to be America's "small-enough-but-big-enough" car. And it still is.

Small car lovers of America, your day has come. You have more tires to kick, more doors to slam, more hoods to look under, more colors to choose from and more test drives to take than ever before. Which leaves us to convince you that Duster gives you the most car for the money. That it's small enough, but big enough. And that, all in all, it's the ideal small car.

Room. More of it to accommodate more passengers. More of it to accommodate more luggage.

Most small cars are four-passenger cars. And when you sit in some of them, they feel like they were built for three-and-a-half passengers.

Small enough for maneuverability. Big enough for stability.

Duster's small enough to slip into about 3/4 of a parking space. Yet it's big enough to give you stability on the open highway. It has our unique torsion-bar suspension (for better handling). And unibody construction—its strength completely surrounds you. So Duster can handle stop-and-go city traffic as well as freeway traffic because it's the right size, the right weight and it handles.

Our small-enough-but-big-enough car has a small-enough-but-big-enough engine.

Duster's standard engine is our rugged 198 cubic inch, 125 horsepower Six. It gives you great gas mileage and a little more power than other small cars' smaller engines. And that's a perfect combination.

Options. You have over 50 to choose from when you order a Duster.

Think of it this way. It's a convenience to have a lot of conveniences to choose from. If you're considering buying a new small car, and you have certain options in mind to go along with it, you may find Duster the only small car that offers them. There are things like a Stereo Cassette Tape Player, V-8 engine, vinyl roof and power brakes that you just can't get on some small cars.

No doubt about it. Duster is the car for the times. Over 175,000 Duster buyers thought so last year. And we expect more of the same kind of success with the 1971 Duster. Before you buy a small car, look at our small car. Duster. Built and engineered with extra care.

County Approves Charter Changes on Nov. 3 Ballot

It was announced at the Sept. 8 meeting of Albany City Council that the County Board of Supervisors has approved placing of two proposed charter changes on the Nov. 3 ballot.

The first deals with changes in the pension program for police and firemen. The second would permit the city to hire civilian clerks in the police department. Both are printed in today's Times (see legalis).

Councilmen discussed the Bay first by asking citizens to complain to Water Control, Air Pollution and Bay Conservation and Development commission if the odor from the Berkeley garbage dump does not subside.

Mayor H. F. Call opened the discussion by saying the smell took a drastic turn for the worse the week after the fire at Berkeley lumpy, particularly in the area between City Hall and behind Albany Hill.

Councilman Joe Carlevaro added, "It was a real stinkaroo."

Councilman Lewis Howell said complaints from citizens should be directed to the control bodies listed above.

Call said he still can't understand those who object to Albany's clean fill but do not object to Berkeley dumping garbage in the bay.

Councilman Richard Clark said, "It is said the East Bay follows Berkeley. . . I'd be ashamed to follow that lead and dump garbage in the Bay. This has to do with ecology and I find their lead is not great. It is their hypocritical attitude that bothers me." He added Albany tries to do things equitably and cooperatively with regard to the Bay, and "the great leader, Berkeley, is sitting on their hands while everything is being done by the City of Albany and others. . ."

Clark then indicated Berkeley City Council is delaying a five-city study of ecological effects future filling might have on the Bay. The joint powers agreement on the model study has been given a go-ahead by Councils of Albany, Richmond and Emeryville.

ville. It is being held in abeyance by Oakland and Berkeley wants a redraft. Once redrafted, an agreement will have to go back to all cities.

In answer to questions from Councilmen, Administrative Officer James B. Turner reported there has been no word from the bureau of Housing and Urban Development on Albany's application to acquire additional property adjacent to the BART linear park on Masonic south of Solano and that the basic summary for a proposed urban renewal program is "coming along."

Carlevaro asked for a report at the next Council meeting on a plan to institute an educational program on drug abuse.

Two claims were denied and referred to City Attorney Lawrence Saler and the insurance carrier.

A public hearing was set Sept. 23 on a request from Veterans' Yellow Cab to increase fares.

Albany Jaycees received Council permission to use something similar to the Albany Seal on an emblem they wish to use on jackets.

David Cannizzaro's appeal to legalize Albany's pin ball machines was referred to Saler and Police Chief Ralph Jensen. Albany has a local ordinance prohibiting anyone under 18 from operating the machines. Senior Councilman Howell said that dates back to the days of John Longacre, when teens were spending their lunch money on pin ball machines.

An appeal from Frances Willson to overrule the Planning and Zoning commission's granting Underground Construction company permission to use an area near the freeway overpass as a construction yard was denied 5-0. Following discussion, another motion was passed stipulating the yard could be used only during construction work on Solano Ave.

The resignation of Policewoman Clerk Colleen Moore was accepted with regret and Fireman Frank G. Herrera was given permanent status in the Fire Department after his year of probation.

A resolution was passed commending Jean Chapman on her services to Albany and accepting her resignation with regret. A proclamation to exert pressure on Hanoi on behalf of prisoners of war was approved.

The meeting adjourned at 8:40 p.m.

ing. Clark said he had not seen the article.

Call said he had heard cheaters were obtaining welfare while those who need it don't get it. He said he thought Council should go on record urging an investigation.

Hein said he believes something will be done after supervisors see the article, which described how one woman and her associates deliberately obtained welfare benefits to prove her contention that it was easy to cheat.

Call added that welfare costs and attached social assistance have gone up 945 per cent in 10 years.

Howell said some people for generations have made this a way of life.

"If we go back to the days of WPA, maybe some will get to work," he said.

Other Matters

Council raised the salary of Acting City Clerk Sarah Brockway to $765, accepted the resignation of Colleen Moore, Policewoman-Clerk, and confirmed the appointment of Frank Herrera as permanent hosieryman in the Fire Department.

An agreement to finance after-school recreation 50-50 with the schools will be prepared following notification that the School Board has approved expenditure not to exceed $5,000 for the program.

Notice from AC Transit that the board, "with great unwillingness," has increased the property tax rate by 9.9 cents was filed.

Council adjourned at 9:05.

chose John Hinkle Park for her Saturday wedding to Rick Oliveira. Although it was blustery and cloudy, the weather was not too bad at the time of the wedding. Sunday was the date of the Inter-Club Council picnic. About 35 hardy souls, bundled in coats and sweaters, turned out at Memorial Park. Eventually the men played horseshoes to keep warm and the women moved inside the Veterans building to play cards. (Talked to relatives in Montana Saturday and it was snowing there, so maybe we shouldn't complain.)

A FELLOW called from Marin county to report he had found somebody's pet cat at the San Pablo-Solano intersection and is holding it for the owner. The cat is a long hair, buff-colored Persian with a yellow collar. Call McShane at 479-8369 if the pet is yours.

RETIRED CITY CLERK Myrtle McLean is now known as the great white hunter in certain parts of the city. Seems she bagged a raccoon in her yard over the weekend.

MAYOR RED CALL says there is a real opportunity to raise money for the candidacy of Albany's Jack Healy. He has found a local Democrat who will match tickets for the fund-raising GOP $100-a-plate dinner when Senator Goldwater will speak Oct. 21. Ticket purchasers may designate candidates to whom $55 of the $100 will go. For every such ticket designating "Democrats for Healy," the anonymous benefactor will purchase another ticket just like it. Call Red at 525-8144 for more details.

WE'LL MISS Henry Austin around here. Before his recent stroke, Henry was always popping in with news of Toastmasters, YMCA or some other interest, including the United Crusade. Henry died Saturday. Memorial services were yesterday.

SOMETIMES the Fire Department hears of blazes in unusual ways. Last Wednesday, when the four-car crash resulted in fire in a Loomis truck and another car on the freeway overpass, Alton Williams of El Cerrito saw it happen ahead of him, called Irving (Bing) Johnson on his civilian band radio and Johnson called Albany police who in turn called the Fire Department. Williams' son is planning to become an auxiliary policeman in Albany. How about Alton?

RESIDENTS in the area of Peralta, Curtis and Neilson thought it was an earthquake late Monday when all water pipes in their homes thundered with a king-size "water hammer." Members of the street department were washing leaves down. When they turned on the big valve in what proved to be a defective hydrant, the big shake began.

UNDERSTAND Bruce McGaw of Albany has had a show of paintings at Oakland Museum. He teaches at the San Francisco Art Institute, lives here.

THERE AIN'T no flies on the folks down at Jim Wolfe Ford. Their new small car is the Pinto, so to help introduce the new line, they had two local gals and their pinto horses on hand last Saturday afternoon. Riders were Susan Dempsey and her sister, Mrs. Sandra Rouse. Also assisting at the premiere was Maid of Albany Sue Rotramel, who will be back again this Friday evening.

LOTTIE MOODY has lost a diamond ring in the vicinity of the 900 block of Stannage. She will reward anyone finding it because the large stone is a family heirloom and means a great deal to her. The ring is distinctive as it was manufactured by our mayor at Call Brothers Jewelers. It is white gold in Florentine finish and is half of a stylized Greek key pattern. The ring may be turned in at Call Brothers or the Police Department leaving name and address for reward.

SOMEbody SAID last week that Albany's tax rate is second highest in the county. It's true. Berkeley's total rate is $15.49. Albany is second with $13.13. Lowest rates, predictably, are Emeryville with $8.44 and San Leandro with $9.16. Oaklanders will pay $12.52. Newark is third high with $12.83.

MRS. R. H. KING, 83, mother of Chamber of Commerce Manager Hal Denham, is a surgical patient at Herrick Memorial hospital. She and her husband are original residents of Satellite Senior Home in Oakland.

ALSO AT Herrick, following surgery for a hip fracture, is Idena Houck, mother of Mrs. Will (Beverly) Senior.

SOME GO IN; others come home. Helen Freels called husband, Gil, the other morning to say she wanted to come home. No sooner said than done.

ROOM 33 at Cornell school is fixing up a reading corner and would appreciate donations of carpet tiles, throw rugs and pillows. Call Mrs. Neilson, 843-1940, after 6.

FRANK KNAPP Night at the Veterans' Memorial building will be Saturday, Nov. 14. The orchestra is under contract and the committee hard at work. The far-sighted post 292 members have also booked the band for their New Year's Eve party.

PLANS ARE afoot to tear down the vacant Der Wiener-schnitzel building and replace it with a lower style Winchell's Donut House. Casper's Hot Dog place is kind of at a standstill.

EVERY YEAR about this time, it's fun to get out Vol. 1, No. 1 of the Albany Times. Many of the original advertisers are still around—Albany Theater (now Cinema), Albany Florist shop, Carlevaro's (now Mary's and Joe's), Albany Club, Hill Lumber, Ellis Mortuary (now Ellis-Olson), Dr. A. Eugene Doss, Albany YMCA, Solano Avenue Pharmacy, Murphy Chevrolet (now East Bay) and C. N. Lavers. My goodness, Cecil was both city attorney and a member of the school board back in 1935.

PROPOSED CHARTER AMENDMENT NO. 1

That Section 50 of the Charter of the City of Albany be amended in the following particulars:

First: To amend Section 50(e) to hereafter read as follows:

"(e) EVIDENCE OF DISABILITY TO BE FILED—No person shall be retired, as provided in subsections (d) and (dd) of this Section 50, or receive any benefit from said fund, unless there shall be filed with said Board certificates of his disability, which certificates shall be subscribed and sworn to by said person, and by the Health Officer of the City of Albany, and by two regularly licensed practicing physicians of the County of Alameda, State of California, and such Board may require other evidence of disability before ordering such retirement and payment as aforesaid."

Second: To amend subsection (f) of Section 50 by deleting "sixteen years" and inserting in lieu thereof "eighteen (18) years"; and deleting "one-third", and inserting in lieu thereof "one-half (1/2)", to be effective upon enactment and said subsection to read as follows:

—Whenever any member of the Fire or Police Departments of such City of Albany, at the taking effect of this act, or thereafter, shall lose his life while in the performance of his duty, leaving a widow, or child or children under the age of eighteen (18) years, then upon satisfactory proof of such fact made to it, such Board shall order and direct that yearly pension, equal to one-half (1/2) of the salary attached to the rank which such member held in said Fire or Police Department at the time of his death, shall be paid to such widow during her life, or if no widow, then to child or children, until they shall be eighteen (18) years of age; provided, if such widow or child or children shall marry, then such person so marrying shall thereafter receive no further pension from such fund."

Sixth: To amend subsection (1) of Section 50 by deleting "six per centum (6%)", and inserting in lieu thereof "nine per centum (9%)", and said subsection to read as follows:

"(1) MONEYS TO BE PAID INTO POLICE AND FIRE RELIEF AND PENSION FUND—The City Council of the City of Albany shall, for the purpose of said Police and Fire Relief and Pension Fund hereinbefore mentioned, direct the payment into said fund, as follows:

"(a) sum equal to nine per centum (9%) out of and from the total amount of the monthly payroll of all of the members of both of said Departments for the current month, shall be retained by the City Treasurer, and shall be paid into said Police and Fire Relief and Pension Fund by the City; in addition hereto, said City shall contribute an equal amount to said fund monthly. The City may make such other contributions to the said fund when actuarial studies reveal the necessity thereof. Said moneys shall, in the discretion of the said Police and Fire Pension Trustees, be invested at not less than 3 1/2% per annum, if such rate of interest is obtainable."

Seventh: To amend Section 50 by adding subsection (r) thereto, to read as follows:

time of said disability, possible future service up to age sixty (60) may be used, but in no event shall said allowance exceed one-third (1/3) of final compensation; provided that when such disability shall cease, such allowance shall cease, and such person shall be restored to active service at the same rank at which he was retired. Upon the death of such person then receiving non-service disability allowance, the widow and/or children of the deceased member of the Fire or Police Department shall receive the same benefits from the Fire and Police Relief or Pension Fund as provided in paragraph (g) of Section 50 of the Charter of the City of Albany.

"Final compensation as used in this subsection is defined as the highest average annual compensation, excluding overtime, earnable by said member during any period of three (3) consecutive years during his membership in the system."

The City may make such other contributions to the said fund when actuarial studies reveal the necessity thereof. Said moneys shall, in the discretion of the said Police and Fire Pension Trustees, be invested at not less than 3 1/2% per annum, if such rate of interest is obtainable."

Seventh: To amend Section 50 by adding subsection (r) thereto, to read as follows:

time of said disability, possible future service up to age sixty (60) may be used, but in no event shall said allowance exceed one-third (1/3) of final compensation; provided that when such disability shall cease, such allowance shall cease, and such person shall be restored to active service at the same rank at which he was retired. Upon the death of such person then receiving non-service disability allowance, the widow and/or children of the deceased member of the Fire or Police Department shall receive the same benefits from the Fire and Police Relief or Pension Fund as provided in paragraph (g) of Section 50 of the Charter of the City of Albany.

Frank Andronico Host for Balloon Reunion in SF

A rapidly dwindling organization of men who manned the "Seeing Eye Elephants" in World War I will gather for their 39th annual reunion at the Sheraton-Palace hotel in San Francisco Thursday through Saturday, Sept. 17-19.

The National American Association of Balloon Corps Veterans will be hosted by Nor-Cal Bed No. 8 and its Commander, Frank J. Andronico of Berkeley, president of Park and Shop Markets. There are 20 "beds" in the national organization, so named because during the war the huge balloons were hauled in and "bedded" down each night.

From a membership of about 3,000 in the 30's, anticipated attendance in San Francisco is about 200 men in their 70th and 80th years. Some will meet buddies or shipmates for the first time in 52 years; some, possibly, for the last time.

Last Man's Club

A "last man's club" (there can be no more because the observation balloon, too vulnerable to attack by modern fighter planes, became obsolete before World War II), they have a bottle of 1917 Kentucky bourbon in a safe deposit box to be used in a toast to their departed comrades by the last few survivors.

For those unfamiliar with the unique branch of the service, a vital cog in the military machine that crushed Kaiser Wilhelm's Germany in 1918, the Balloon Corps consisted of ground crewmen and observers whose duty was to direct artillery fire on enemy batteries, traffic, crossroads, ammunition and food dumps, spot activity and troop movements and keep the general staff informed.

Each outfit handled one balloon, an elephant-like bag filled with highly inflammable hydrogen gas. They were flown at altitudes of from 14,000 feet, depending on visibility and targets and generally between the 75 and six-inch howitzers.

Forward observation from the ground was practically impossible, planes in motion inaccurate, wireless undependable. The artillery preferred balloons with direct telephone communications. This reconnaissance work won for the balloon observers the indisputable title of "Eyes of the Army."

Soldiers of other branches who saw the huge bags floating like sentinels on both sides of the lines and watched them being attacked and streaking earthward in smoke and flames, really knew little about their operation or purpose.

Infantrymen and artillerymen were not happy when a balloon company moved in. It meant drawing shell fire, especially if there was an enemy balloon looking down on them from across No Man's Land. Air strafing was sure to follow.

Balloon Busting

Both sides sent their best fliers to shoot down the sausages. "Balloon busting" was considered so hazardous that German pilots were credited with two kills for every one they shot down. Lt. Frank Luke was America's ace balloon burner, knocking down 13 German balloons and six planes in 18 days before being forced down and dueling to his death with German soldiers on the ground.

Operating on a quiet sector was one thing, but pressing forward with advancing troops was something else—a herculean task.

Imagine plunging forward, mostly by night, with a 92-foot captive balloon containing 37,000 cubic feet of explosive hydrogen. Men either "walked it" by hanging on the ropes or weighted it with sandbags, attached it by cable to a winch truck and elevated it.

Their route covered smoldering, rubble-strewn villages, barbed wire, shell-pocked or mine-cratered roads or across deeply muddied fields to avoid traffic-blocked roads. They had to maneuver around trees, bridges and skinny up poles in the dark to cut overhead wires. Pulling their trucks, loaded with gas cylinders, they often had to move artillery pieces mired in the mud in order to get the balloons through.

The ordeal of laying miles of telephone wires to battery central only to have them blown up by shells or chopped by caterpillar treads of passing tanks meant sending motorcycle dispatchers to and from batteries to locate and repair the breaks. Often they had to move again within 24 hours or less and the ritual was repeated.

Shelling and aerial attacks were daylight threats, but almost worse were clear nights when balloons on the ground looked like huge silver eggs in the moonlight.

Hazards

Other hazards involved frantic ally carrying 200-pound gas cylinders across churned-up fields or through woods to inflate another balloon after one had been destroyed in the air or on the ground, poison gas attacks, moving ever farther from supplies, personnel weakened by phosgene or chlorine gas, suffering dysentery, sleeping in the mud in wet uniforms alive with crotches and eating moldy, maggoty food, when it could be secured.

Balloon observers performed acts of extraordinary bravery remaining at their posts, continuing their missions, peering deep into enemy territory with high power binoculars, regulating artillery fire and compiling information for headquarters to the very last moment. At the signal of danger by telephone from the ground, observers were privileged to come down.

Without means of defense, balloon observers were sitting ducks. Any second might bring a spectacular attack from balloon-busting enemy aviators in Fokkers, Albatrosses or Pfalz, darting out of the clouds or diving from the direction of the sun through the anti-aircraft shell bursts and the company's machine gun barrage.

At the command to jump, the observer leaped from the wicker basket sky perch, heard the crack of silk as the parachute opened about 100 feet from the basket. His balloon was a mass of smoke, flame, rubber and ropes dropping earthward. Until another gasbag had been inflated, the Army had temporarily lost one of its sky spies.

Down in Flames

Miraculous as it may seem, only one observer, Lt. Cleo J. Ross, failed to jump soon enough and his parachute ignited from the flaming balloon. He dropped like a rock about 1,200 feet to the ground. His partner, Lt. Herbert B. Hudnut of Glen Falls, N.Y., now a retired minister and national chaplain of the organization, landed safely.

Successful jumps from front-line balloons were made by 124 American observers under attack. Many were given French medals. Fifteen received Distinguished Service Crosses. Two observers were taken prisoner during a wind storm when a steel cable broke and sent them on a wild ride over the St. Mihiel battle into enemy hands.

Although General Pershing continually appealed by cable for at least 125 balloon companies, 93 were organized and only 36 had reached France by the time of the Armistice.

The first four balloon companies reached France Dec. 23, 1917, after seven months of training at Fort Omaha, Neb. The second company was the first air service unit at the front in World War I, relieving the 91st French balloon company on Feb. 26, 1918. Except for a week of recuperation after the Chateau Thierry drive, this outfit was at the front without relief for 244 days, leaving the battlefield on Armistice Day.

Gen. Mason M. Patrick paid tribute to the balloon companies in his final report to the Commander-in-Chief:

"It is doubtful if the combat troops of any other arm of the service have operated so continuously at the front. Whatever measure of success has been obtained by American balloon troops has been due to the determination of the personnel to overcome all obstacles and to work to the limit of human endurance in order to do their share toward the defeat of the enemy."

Distinguished Members
Among distinguished members of the organization were its two commanders: France: Col. (later Gen.) Frank P. Lahm, a balloon airship pilot who became the Army airplane pilot after joining with the Wright Bros. and Col. Charles D. Chaney, also a balloon and airship pilot who was one of the first trained by the Wrights and first man to fire a machine from an aeroplane.

More recently, mourned the deaths of U.S. Senator Everett M. Dirksen, observer with the 69th Balloon company, and Charles O. Conrath, commander of 31st Balloon company, whose son, Charles Conrath, was the third man to fire a machine from an aeroplane.

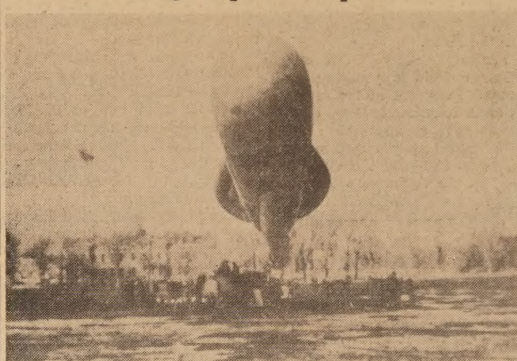

Other noted veterans: John H. Jouett, wing commander who taught the Chinese to fly after World War I; Ley McKinley, commander of balloon company, who flew photographer with Admiral to the South Pole; and R. Turner, member of 45th Balloon company, who became famous as a speed flyer and owned an Airdrome in Alameda, near Tube, where he ran a school for years.

Others were Lincoln Ellsworth, polar explorer; Orville A. A. son, stratosphere balloonist; Oscar Westover, former chief Air Corps; Clarence Chambliss, trans-Atlantic flyer; Pres. Truman's Attorney General Grannery; Gen. William E. nner of the atomic bomb ("Operation Crossroads," and Gen. G. Ent, who led the World War air raid on the Ploesti oil fields.

Friends of Library

REGISTRATION OPENS
FOR PUNT, PASS, KICK

Registration for the 1970 Punt, Pass & Kick Competition is now underway at Jim Woulfe Ford, Inc., 836 San Pablo Ave., Albany.

In making the announcement, Jim Woulfe, president of the dealership, said: "We're looking forward to a big local PP&K competition in Albany Saturday, Oct. 3, at 10 a.m. We hope all the boys 8-13 years of age in this area will come in to register and take part."

Woulfe pointed out that PP&K — throughout its six levels of competition — is free of any charge, and that a boy need only have a parent or his guardian accompany him to the showroom to register.

"Our competition here will have first, second and third place trophies for boys in each of the six age groups, or 18 trophies in all, now on display at our dealership," said Woulfe. "Increasing each boy's chances of winning is the fact that he competes only against other boys in his own age group," said the Ford dealer.

"Of course there is no body contact in PP&K. It's punting, passing and place kicking for distance and points, just as the name says. First place winners in each age group in our competition will go on to the zone competition. And from there, top winners go on up the ladder through district, area, division and national finals," he said.

"This year, the national finals will be held in Los Angeles at the pro All-Star game, Jan. 24. Finalists get an all-expense-paid trip to Los Angeles for themselves and their parents, plus a special tour of Disneyland, a Banquet of Champions celebration, and the chance to meet some of the top players and coaches in professional football. Naturally, we hope some of our Albany PP&K winners will make it all the way to the finals," Woulfe said.

The Ford dealer further explained that each boy upon registering receives a free PP&K Tips book. In the 1970 edition, there are competition tips by NFL stars Dave Lee, Bill Nelson and Fred Cox plus all-round suggestions from Coaches of the Year Hank Stram and Bud Grant. The Tips book also includes complete PP&K rules and helpful conditioning exercises for contestants.

PP&K registration will close at Jim Woulfe Ford Sept. 26.

This is the 10th anniversary year for PP&K. From its inception the youth activity has been sponsored by the Ford Dealers of America and the National Football League. In that time more than 6,000,000 boys have taken part in PP&K, making it the largest and fastest growing activity of its kind in America.

Watch for the next announcement.

Reminder Issued
To Block Parents

Sharon Dreyer Married

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lee Williams (Sharon Dreyer)

Two Maids of Albany, the lovely daughters and only children of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Dreyer of Madison Street, Albany, figured prominently in the recent marriage of Sharon Dreyer and Bill Lee Williams at Epworth Methodist church in Berkeley.

Miss Dreyer's sister, Donna, now Mrs. Niel T. Bair of Chico, was matron of honor and her husband served as Bill's best man.

Dr. Theodore Palmquist officiated at the double ring ceremony, for which the bride selected a traditional gown of Venice lace with high neckline, empire bodice studded with circlets of seed pearls, long sleeves and chapel train. Her shoulder-length veil fell from a cluster of white flowers and she carried a stylized arrangement of white carnations.

Her only jewelry was a gold lock-et, gift of the bridegroom. She was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Bair and other attendants, Miss Wayne Blaylock of Chico, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. William Grosvenor of Castro Valley, wore lilac cotton empire gowns trimmed with purple velvet ribbon, matching picture hats and carried colonial bouquets of lilac, purple and white chrysanthemums.

Ushers were John Costa of Redwood City and Michael Cancilla of Santa Clara.

About 125 guests attended the champagne reception which followed at the El Cerrito Eagles hall. Standing in the receiving line with the couple and the bride's parents, were the parents

Art by Albany
Children in Airport Display
